SERIES OVERVIEW

5-Week Children's Ministry Curriculum

Lesson 1: Hosanna Bananas
Scripture: Psalm 111:1a (NIRV), Crazy Not to Worship God
You might be familiar with the Savannah Bananas, the baseball team that “goes bananas” for the game and acts in outrageous ways for the audience. In this series, kids will learn that it's okay and even appropriate to “go bananas” and worship God with all of our Hearts, the most important audience we have.
Objective: Kids will say “We can praise Him and thank Him with our whole hearts!”

Lesson 2: Going Bananas
Scripture: 2 Samuel 6:12-22, David Dances
If you are going bananas, you are acting in a way that looks out of the ordinary or even strange. When David's wife saw David dancing before God, she thought he was going bananas, but David knew that God is worth going bananas for.
Objective: Kids will say “I worship God with everything that I have.”

Lesson 3: A Few Bananas Short of a Bunch
Scripture: Luke 19:1-10, Zacchaeus
Someone who is a few bananas short of a bunch, isn't all there. When Zacchaeus decided to give away half of everything he had, some people must have thought he was a few bananas short of a bunch, but Zacchaeus was worshiping God with his money and his stuff.
Objective: Kids will say “I worship God with my time, my money and my stuff.”

Lesson 4: Banana Split
Scripture: Job 1:13-22, Job Loses Everything
Job lost everything. His money, his children, his possessions had all split. He had every reason to be depressed and sad. But the one thing Job realized is that God still deserves the praise, even if everything in Job's life had gone wrong. God is still good even when life doesn't seem good.
Objective: Kids will say “I worship God because He is always good.”

Lesson 5: Banana Peel
Scripture: Luke 7:36-50, Jesus Anointed
To slip on a banana peel is to mess up, make a mistake. The woman who anointed Jesus had slipped on the banana peel plenty of times, but she didn't let that stop her from coming to Jesus and worshiping Him.
Objective: Kids will say “I worship God because He is perfect and I am not.”

Lesson 6: Second Banana
Scripture: Luke 19:28-42, Triumphal Entry
To be the second banana is to recognize that there is someone more important out there than you. Worship is a celebration of the top banana and a recognition that the rest of us are just second bananas.
Objective: Kids will say “I worship God because He is the most important.”

SERIES OVERVIEW

Lesson 7: The Final Split
Scripture: Revelation 21:1-5 & Revelation 22:12-13, The Book of Revelation
God's Word has always been true! We can look at the prophecies about Jesus that already came true and know that we can trust God's promises about the future. Revelation gives us hope because God is in control, Jesus wins, and one day God will make all things new.
Objective: Kids will learn that "I worship God because He gives us Hope for the Future!"

Lesson 8: Bad Bananas
Scripture: Revelation 3:14-22, Letter to a Lukewarm Church
Revelation begins with seven letters to seven churches, and most of them are not good news. God calls all believers and churches to be faithful and alert. He wants us to be hard at work sharing the gospel because the end of times will one day come.
Objective: Kids will say that "I worship God because He helps us to be "hot" in our faith, rather than lukewarm!

Lesson 9: Bunch of Bananas
Scripture: Revelation 16, Seven Bowls
Revelation is a series of sevens: seven letters followed by seven seals, seven trumpets, and seven bowls. Each set of seven seems to make things worse and worse, especially the seven bowls of wrath. God gave us these revelations so we would not lose heart. Yes, the end of times will be bad, but Jesus will still win out in the end!
Objective: Kids will say "I worship God because we don't need to be afraid of end times!"

Lesson 10: The Big A"peel"
Scripture: Revelation 20:7-15, The Final Judgment
When Jesus returns, the first thing He will do is pass final judgment on Satan. Anyone who rejects God will be judged as well, but those who are written in the Book of Life will be spared. Knowing this makes it all the more urgent that we stay "hot" for Christ and share our faith with others.
Objective: Kids will say "I worship God because He is a good judge!"

Lesson 11: Ripe Bananas
Scripture: Revelation 21:1-4, 9-27, A New Heaven and Earth
The final vision of Revelation is of the new home Jesus is preparing for us. We will live in a new Heaven and Earth, and we will dwell there with God forever.
Objective: Kids will say "I worship God because I can call on Jesus as my Savior!"

October 28
